FORUM FOR EVIDENCE-BASED PREVENTATIVE HEALTH

Parliamentary Breakfast on the Gender Health Gap

At the German Bundestag (Parliament)

When established assumptions and morally charged debates replace scientific assessment, patients bear the consequences, and healthcare systems pay a financial price, as measures become less effective.

All three speakers (LTR):

- Christina Pingel (Piper Verlag, Author and Activist)
- Prof. Dr. Vera Regitz-Zagrosek (Charité University Hospital, Senior Professor for Gender Health Studies)
- Eva Biringer (Die Zeit & Welt, Independent Author)

LTR: Marie Derstroff (Left Party, Political advisor), MP Matthias Mieves (Patron & Member of the Health Committee, Social Democrat), Eva Biringer, Paulina Kamm (Pharmazeutische Zeitung, Editor) & Prof. Dr. Vera Regitz-Zagrosek

LTR: Felix Große-Plankermann (FEBPH, Director), Prof. Dr. Vera Regitz-Zagrosek, Eva Biringer, Christina Pingel & MP Matthias Mieves

LTR: Dr. Ulrike Poller (Federal Ministry of Health, Head of Division for Prevention), Prof. Dr. Vera Regitz-Zagrosek & Prof. Frank-Ulrich Fricke (FEBPH, Health Economist)

LTR: Eva Biringer, Sophie Gepp (MP Office Dr. Kirsten Kappert-Gonther, the Greens, Political advisor & parliamentary researcher), Christina Pingel & Paulina Kamm

Prof. Frank-Ulrich Fricke